HENRY BENTON KIRK

Henry Benton Kirk was the oldest son of William B. and Amanda Ann (Hudson) Kirk and a grandson of Henry and Harriet Kirk. He was born on January 7, 1881 in Marshall County, Mississippi. His father died when he was approximately six or seven years old and his mother remarried the same year. She married Zenos Vernor.

The following story was told to and written by Ollie Kirk Milton, the oldest daughter of Henry Benton Kirk:

"They lived on the Kirk farm near Blue Mountain, Mississippi. They had so many children, the house was not large enough and Mr. Vernor had not wanted to keep Henry Benton and Ernest Kirk, so Amanda let them go live with their uncles (their father's brothers). Don't know which one took Ernest Kirk, but Uncle Nathan Kirk took Henry Benton.

Henry Benton loved his Uncle Nathan and Aunt Sally. They were very good to him, but he worked hard for them. Henry Benton walked behind a walking plow bare-footed in the rocks and had stone bruises so bad he could barely walk. He worked on the farm from the time he was 7 years until he was 10 years of age. Uncle Nathan lived near Cornersville, Mississippi. He was paid sometimes with a ham and sometimes with $2.50 cash which he took back to his mother to help feed the Vernor family.

Uncle Nathan Kirk had the mail route and Henry Benton rode the route horseback with him from Cornersville, Holly Springs and Potts Camp, Mississippi. Uncle Nathan also carried long distance mail from southern Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico. They usually had two people riding the route. They had one place run by a negro couple where they stayed at night. Henry Benton said their house was always neat and clean. They had one room kept especially for white folks. She was a good cook and would put heated brick in the bed to keep him warm. She washed his socks because she said "Little boys need dry, clean socks to keep their feet warm." The negro man would feed their horses. On the way back from the Gulf of Mexico they would bring the mail and stalks of bananas when it was not too cold. Bananas were shipped into the coast of Mississippi and Louisiana.

Henry Benton got his fingers cut off while working in the cotton gin. He went to school a little, but very little. Ollie Hampton was a school teacher who lived close to Uncle Nathan and she taught him some."

On December 6, 1899, at the age of 18, Henry Benton Kirk married Alice Pearl Cruse in Marshall County, Mississippi. Rev. Jim Rodgers, the Baptist minister, performed the ceremony.

Alice Pearl Cruse was born March 18, 1882, also in Marshall County Mississippi. She was the fourth child of Virgil Alexander Cruse and Mary Texanna Ursy Cruse and was born at Blue Mountain, Mississippi.

Alice Pearl Cruse attended school until she was a "big" girl. Her family made their own soap and spun thread to make the cloth for clothes. They also made the dye to color their cloth. As a child, Alice Pearl fell in the fireplace and burnt her head. The scars were small and barely visible when she was an adult but they were still there. Virgil Alexander Cruse, her father, worked away from home so the responsibilities of the children were great.

Virgil Alexander Cruse donated the land where the school house was built and Ollie Hampton was the teacher. (The is the same teacher who lived close to Nathan Kirk and taught Henry Benton.)

As stated above, Henry Benton Kirk married Alice Pearl Cruse on December 6, 1899 in Marshall County Mississippi. Henry Benton continued working for his Uncle Nathan and on December 19, 1901, they had their first child, Ollie Jewell Kirk. Alice Pearl Cruse Kirk had gone over to Blue Mountain to visit her mother and Ollie Jewell Kirk was born in her grandmother's home, the home of Virgil Alexander Cruse. This was the same home Alice Pearl Cruse Kirk had been born in. Ollie Jewell Kirk was named after Ollie Hampton, the school teacher who was a neighbor of his Uncle Nathan.

In approximately 1903, Henry Benton had earned enough money for train fare to Texas. Henry Benton was 22, Alice Pearl was 21, and Ollie Jewell was 2 when they packed up and moved their family to Texas. They lived at McKinney in Collin County, Texas and in Rains County, Texas which is east of Dallas, their second child was born. Otis Cecil Kirk made his first appearance on February 15, 1904.

On November 23, 1910, at Nevada, Collin County, Texas, their third child, William Gladys (Bill) Kirk, was born. On April 13, 1913 at Ladonia, Hunt County, Texas their fourth and last child, Amanda Lucille Kirk was born. All of these towns and counties are close together and at Wolf City which is also in this area, Ollie Jewell Kirk Milton buried their second and last baby.. While they were living in this area and the rains prevented the hearse from transfering caskets to the cemetery Benton would carry the casket to the cemetery in his wagon.

They moved around always trying to get better and more land. Ollie Jewell married in 1919 and Otis Cecil married in 1922. In 1924 they went further west to Wellington, Texas, but didn't like it there so they didn't even unpack. They went on to Paducah, Texas which is where they finally settled. Upon arrival at Paducah, they pitched a tent on a hill where the gin eventually was built. They lived in this tent for about four months. Benton and Bill went to work for Marvin Allison who owned the feed and seed store. They unloaded coal and feed from the boxcars.

The next year Benton farmed on Judge Woodley's farm about 5 or 6 miles southwest of Paducah, in the Buck Creek community. He grew cotton, maize and sudan, raised chickens, turkeys and a few milk cows and hogs. Pearl sold butter and eggs in town and they killed a hog or two for food.

In 1930 they moved closer to town on another of Judge Woodley's farms. The house was nicer and there was more land. Pearl was an extremely modest person and one day, before Lucille married, they all come to town in the wagon. When Pearl got out of the wagon the elastic in her panties broke and her panties dropped down around her ankles. If you had known her you would have know just how funny it was. It embarrassed her to death. She got in behind Benton and backed in between the horses, pulled her panties up and pinned them with a safety pin. Benton and Lucille laughed until they hurt and never missed an opportunity to tell this story on her.

Henry Benton and Pearl lived there until about 1935. After the crops were in they moved to A A Payne's place in the Moon Community southeast of Paducah. There Benton made enough money and they bought a place about 12 miles north of Paducah in the Dunlap Community.

In the meantime, Bill Kirk had married in 1930 and Lucille had married in 1933. More information is available later on all of Benton and Pearl's children.

Benton and Pearl remained on and farmed their land until he retired in 1947-48. They grew cotton and maize and planted a little sudan for the cattle. They had chickens, turkeys, milk cows, bulls, hogs, and work horses. They had their own garden for fresh vegetables and also a few fruit trees. In West Texas there is very little grass because it is extremely hot and dry. Pearl would go out daily and sweep her yard with a broom to make sure that not only was her home spotless, so was her yard.

Neither of them learned to drive and while they lived on their farm, they would come to town in his wagon and team on Saturdays and he would bring 30-36 dozen eggs to sell. We were fortunate children; Henry Benton and Alice Pearl Cruse Kirk were our grandparents; William Gladys (Bill) and Jewel Applegate Kirk were our parents and we always lived close together. We lived in town and they lived on the farm. Some of my best memories came from their trips into town in their wagon. They would let us go home with them if we asked and we always asked. We would run along behind the wagon, jump into the back and rest then jump out and run some more and know that we had more fun than anyone else in the world. If we were really, really good Papa would let us drive the team and then we really felt "big" and proud.

After they retired and moved into town (Paducah) they played an even more important part of our lives. Benton and Pearl were two of the nicest, kindest and sweetest people in the world. They never met a stranger and would help anyone at any time. Their house was just one block off the main intersection in town so many a hitch-hiker and many a hobo passed by their house. Pearl would always say "Benton, don't you think he is hungry?" so Benton would go out and get whoever was walking down the street, bring them back to their home, feed them, let them take a bath and/or a nap and send them on their way.

They didn't get to attend church often because they didn't always have transportation. They always went when they could and went to the Missionary Baptist Church with us, but they lived their religion twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, three hundred sixty five days a year. They raised their children to be good, hard working, Christian people. Both of their sons worked in law enforcement at one time or another and Benton had been a Constable in the Nevada, Texas area.

Henry Benton was six feet four or five inches tall and very slender. Alice Pearl was about five foot two or three inches. Every morning Pearl got up first and fixed breakfast. When it was almost ready, she put the biscuits in the oven and would go call Benton to get up. The dining room was between the kitchen and the bedroom and as Benton come out of the bedroom, she came out of the kitchen. Every morning they would meet in the dining room between the table and the refrigerator; he would stoop over, she would stand on tiptoes and they would kiss.

Their marriage was a truly happy marriage and their lives were full of love and joy - the kind of life you call truly successful. They were not rich by any means, but with the things that really counted, they had an over abundance.

The only time Benton was away from home at night without Pearl was when he returned to Mississippi for a visit with his family. When he returned home he was so happy he just hugged and hugged Pearl and cried. They were married seventy plus years and never spent another night apart. The only time he was away from home after dark and Pearl was not with him was when he was hauling cotton to the gin and was late getting in. When one of them went into the hospital, hospital personnel got a rollaway bed for the other one. They stayed together.

On January 10, 1970, Henry Benton Kirk died of cancer of the pancreas. Pearl died on January 26, 1972 of heart failure. They are buried together in the Garden of Memories Cemetery, Paducah, Cottle County, Texas.

MR. AND MRS. H. B. KIRK

Hand In Hand 68 Years

"68 years. That's a long time for a man to live with one woman," I teased Mr. Kirk. Mrs Kirk retorted, "That's a long time to have to put up with one man!" But after 68 happy, full years of marriage, the Kirks, Ben and Alice, do not seem at all unhappy with each other and "We've never had any trouble" Mr. Kirk said.

Both were born in Marshall County, Mississippi, near Hollis Springs, Mr. Kirk in January, 1881 and Mrs. Kirk in March, 1882. She was Alice Pearl Cruse, and at the age of 17, in the home of her mother, she became the bride of Henry Benton Kirk, Dec. 6, 1899. She was married in a floor length blue gown, without a bustle, though she says some were still being worn at that time. Mr. Kirk says he borrowed a buggy, though they had plenty of horses they had no buggy, for their wedding trip to Blue Mountain, where they visted his mother and an aunt his new birde had not met.

After their trip, they returned to Marshall County, where they farmed a little place belonging to his uncle Nate Kirk, for four years. In February of 1903, the Kirks, by now three of them with little Ollie their eldest daughter, and Mrs. Cruse, Mrs. Kirk's mother, boarded a train at Potts Camp, Miss. for the long journey to Texas. It was about three days before they reached their destination, Raines County, Texas.

The couple farmed in Raines County for about four years and here one of their sons, Bill, was born. Moving to Collins County, another son was born, Cecil, and then to Hunt County where their youngest daughter Lucille was born. In 1924, the family moved to Cottle County where they farmed in the Delwin Community and north of Paducah until retirement in 1948. The bouple bought a home at 1915 -8th Street where they still reside.

MR. AND MRS. H. B. KIRK

H. B. Kirks To Celebrate 70th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kirk will observe their 70th wedding anniversary on Dec. 6 at their home at 1013 - 8th Street in Paducah.

Both were born and reared in Mississippi. They married Dec. 6, 1899. Mrs. Kirk is the former Miss Alic e Pearl Cruce.

The Kirks have four children Mrs. Ollie Milton, Rogers, Ark.; Mrs. Lucille Bratton, Portsmouth, Va.; Cecil Kirk, Roanoke, Tex.; Bill Kirk of Russellville, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk came to Cottle County in the fall of 1924. They farmed south of Paducah for eleven years until they retired in 1944 and moved to present residence.

Ollie Jewell Kirk

Ollie Jewell Kirk is the oldest child of Henry Benton and Alice Pearl (Cruse) Kirk, a granddaughter of William B. and Amanda Ann (Hudson) Kirk, and a great-granddaughter of Henry and Harriet Kirk. She was born in Blue Mountain, Marshall County, Mississippi on December 19, 1901.

At the age of two, Ollie Jewell's parents moved the family to Texas, and lived in Collin, Rains and Hunt Counties. It was in this area that, at Nevada, Texas on May 6, 1919, Ollie Jewell Kirk married Albert Earl Milton. He was born on April 4, 1888, in Ozark, Arkansas, and was the son of Lee Laffette and Mary Jane (Mayner) Milton.

It was also in this area at Wolfe City, Texas, that their first child, Lunas Olin "Jack" Milton was born on July 6, 1920, and their second and last child, Marvin Kirk Milton was born and died on August 23, 1923.

They couldn't make a living in the Wolfe City area; the land wasn't any good so the farming was not productive. Ollie and Albert raised turkeys. They had some friends living in Anderson, Indiana, and they decided to move up North. They took their turkeys to town on Saturday and sold them. Albert told Ollie to put the money in the bank but this was the most money Ollie had ever had and she just wanted to hold it for a while. Without Albert knowing it, she took the money home with her. Monday morning a neighbor stopped by to see them and asked Ollie if she had sold her turkeys. Ollie answered "Yes" and the neighbor wanted to know if she put the money in the bank. Ollie said that she had not and was told that the bank in town had gone under; it was bankrupt and had locked its doors that morning. Albert was really happy that Ollie had not put their money in the bank.

They took this money, loaded up their old T Model Ford and moved to Anderson, Indiana. On their way north, they came upon a big hill that their old T Model would not climb. They repeatedly rolled back down the hill and started back up again. Finally a local farmer came by and suggested that he simply back up the hill. Albert thought he was crazy but he tried it and it worked. At that time, the gas tanks were in the back and the hill was steep so when they started up it, all the gas ran to the back of the car. By turning around they solved their problem.

When they arrived at Anderson, Indiana, it took them a while to get jobs. Ollie got one first at General Motors and eventually Albert got one there also. Albert worked for 19 cents an hour. They saved their money, bought a house and continued buying houses to rent them out.

They decided to return to Texas so they sold their property and started out. Their return trip took them through Arkansas and Albert fell in love with the Ozarks and the streams. They eventually settled in Rogers, Arkansas, where they had purchased a motel, gas station and grocery store all adjacent to each other. Ollie was very thrifty with their money and they built up the businesses until they were very profitable.

They sold their businesses and bought a new house in Rogers, Arkansas, which is where Albert Earl Milton passed away on August 5, 1958. He is buried at Rogers also.

Ollie sold the house in Rogers and bought a mobile home at Broken Arrow, Oklahoma so she could be close to her only living son who preceeded her in death. As of this date, Ollie Kirk Milton is living in a nursing home in Oklahoma. She is the only child of Henry Benton and Alice Pearl (Cruse) that is still living.

Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,
If so, we saw them there.

As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console the heart,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.

In Loving Memory

I Have A Place In Heaven

Please don't sing sad songs for me

Forget your grief and fears,

For I am in a perfect place,

Away from pain and tears...

I'm far away from hunger

And hurt and want and pride.

I have a place in Heaven

With the master at my side.

My life on earth was very good,

As earthly lives can go,

But Paradise is so much more

Than anyone can know...

My heart is filled with happiness

And sweet rejoicing, too.

To walk with God is perfect peace,

A joy forever new.

Otis Cecil Kirk

Otis Cecil Kirk was the second child of Henry Benton and Alice Pearl (Cruse) Kirk, a grandson of William B. and Amanda (Hudson) Kirk, and a great-grandson of Henry and Harriet Kirk. Otis Cecil Kirk was born on February 15, 1904, at Raines County, Texas. He was known by his middle name of Cecil.

Cecil Kirk was a cotton farmer. On October 1, 1922, Cecil Kirk married Neppie Susan Vaughan at Nevada, Texas. They had one child, Henry Leon Kirk who was born on January 26, 1924 at Nevada, Texas.

Neppie Susan (Vaughan) Kirk was born on April 7, 1901 at Josephine, Collin County, Texas. She was the daughter of William Jesse and Margaret Cordelia (Thurman) Vaughan who were both born at Rogersville, Tennessee, and are buried at Caddo Mills, Texas. Neppie Susan (Vaughan) Kirk died on July 15, 1947 and is buried at Forest Park Cemetery at Greenville, Texas.

After the death of his first wife, Cecil married Helen Blankenship and they had one daughter, Maxine Kirk. Maxine was born on July 21, 1953?

For about twelve years, Cecil served with the Hunt County Sheriff's office patrolling the Lone Oak, Texas area. Then, for several years he was employed by businessmen in Lone Oak to act as night watchman for their stores.

Otis Cecil Kirk was killed in an automobile accident on January 14, 1977. Actually he was out on a call and had a flat tire. While he was changing the tire, an automobile hit and killed him. He is buried at Donelton Cemetery in Lone Oak, Texas. A memorial plaque was erected in honor of Cecil at Lone Oak Texas. A picture is enclosed.

PERMANENT REMINDER–Henry Kirk reads the plaque that was erected in honor of his father, Cecil Kirk, who was a veteran of more than 30 years of law enforcement in the Lone Oak area when he was killen an auto accident in Jan. 1977. (staff photo by Jess Blackburn).

Old friend not forgotten

LONE OAK–Cecil Kirk was the type of man who enjoyed helping people, his son, Henry, recalled.

For about 12 years, the elder Kirk served with the Hunt County Sheriff's office patrolling the Lone Oak area.

Then, for several years, he was employed by businessmen in Lone Oak to act as a night watchman on their stores, but "He kept an eye out for everybody," said Mrs. Lois gilbert, who with her husband, Melvin operates the Bargain House here.

When Kirk was killed in an automobile accident in Jan. 1977. Mrs. and M.gilbert and two other residents, Scoot Moss and Lee Collins wanted to do something to remind the public of Cecil Kirk.

"We decided it would be nice to have a plaque dedicated to him," Mrs. Gilbert said.

Donation boxes were placed in several businesses to raise money for the plaque.

"People from Quinlan, Tawakoni and Lone Oak all chipped in to buy it," she said. "Ih was a community effort."

Finally, some $350 was collected and the bronze plaque was ordered.

"When it ca.s, it was not at all what we wanted. The company had etch ed his figure instead of having a raised engraved figure like we wanted,,' she said. "We found out that it would take another $250 to get the plaque we wanted so we started collecting again."

Mrs. Gilbert credited her husband and Collins for getting that extra $250.

"I figure we spent about that much in telephone calls trying to raise the money," Gilbert said.

The plaque was placed on the brick wall of the Bargain House this week as a permanent reminder of Kirk's dedication.

"We wanted to put it on a post somewhere in town, but found out that we would have to rent the space," Gilbert said. "So, we put it on the front of the store.. YOu know, it's just not right to forget someone who was a good friend and a big help."
